Art in Eagles

Our Year 5/6 children have been exploring macro photography, capturing stunning close-up images of leaves, plants, and everyday textures. The lesson sparked creativity and sharpened their observation skills, revealing the beauty in tiny details. Well done—we can't wait to see your final art work!

History in Falcons

To help understand just how far away prehistoric times were, Year 3/4 took a creative approach—using toilet paper! Each sheet represented 1,000 years, and as the roll stretched across the hall, the children were amazed to see how long ago the Stone Age started. It was a fun, visual way to explore timelines and grasp the vastness of history!
